Elks Preparing For Annual Carnival

Proceeds to Worthy Charities and Lord Mayor's Fund; Heavy Ticket Sale.

The Elks annual carnival is gaining momentum as the time approaches to give the citizens of Coleman two days of fun. On Monday all Elks will gather at the arena and erect the various booths.

The ticket sale has been heavy and three candidates are in the race for carnival queen and the handsome prize. The candidates are Fay Grant, Thelma Williams and Helen Gate and each has a number of helpers selling tickets. Proceeds are for Elks' charities and the Lord Mayor's Fund for air-raid victims.

The booths will be attractively decorated and it is planned to have good music before placed on display at such events as this. Frank Edley's orchestra will play for the jitsy dance.

George Dibblee, thirteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Dibblee, is improving in health after an illness of several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. A. Dewar had as their guests last week Mr. and Mrs. J. Swann and Mr. and Mrs. R. McIntosh, of Marquis, Saskatchewan, who were enroute to the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Swann are former Colemans, having resided here previous to 1910, at which time they moved to Saskatchewan. He was employed at International mine as storekeeper. They built their residence now known as the Catholic rectory.

Master Billy Donaldson, of Lethbridge, is the guest of the Leithbridge, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dewar.

Messrs. Joe Saad and Tony Coccone returned last week from Montreal, where they were employed at an airplane factory, and have secured employment at the local mines.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Tiffin and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bedington are attending the Calgary Stampede.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dewar, motored to Lethbridge on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dewar and daughter, of New Jersey, were the recent guests of Mrs. Dewar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Antrobus. Mr. Dewar left after a few days' visit for home, while Mrs. Dewar and daughter will remain here for a month.

PUBLISHING TRAVEL FOLDER
Alberta and British Columbia are co-operating in the publication of a joint travel folder designed to attract visitors to both provinces favored such action. It was publication is almost completed, and issue is expected shortly. The recent tourist conference held in Edmonton which was attended by representatives of the two provinces favored such action. It was felt that, since Alberta and British Columbia share the magnificent heritage of the Rockies, the diversion of tourist traffic from one to the other would prove to be a profitable undertaking.

Miss Freda Antrobus is in Lethbridge today where, with Helen McKenpie, pianist of Lethbridge, and Catherine Brown, violinist of Taber, she will present a recital at the Marquis hotel under the sponsorship of the Major Stafford (Junior) Chapter, I.O.D.E., in aid of their war work funds.

M. Tarcon's Bird Wins 505 Miles Race in Record Time

Entries Received From Pass Towns; Weather Good, Birds Arrive in Good Condition.

Competing in the race for the Dr. R. K. Lillie Cup and championship of the Crows Nest Pass, Mike Tarcon's bird completed the 505 miles flight from Waterways in 14 1/2 hours to create a record for this annual race.

The distinction of being the only bird to arrive the same day as liberated was, however, taken from him by Eddie Leskoek, of Bellevue, clocked in his bird two hours later to take second place.

These were the only birds to arrive the same day. The first at 7:10 p.m. and the second at 9 p.m.

The following day F. Bedington clocked in at 4:47 a.m. for third place. W. Roughhead clocked in at 5 a.m. and F. Eyspeckers at 5:30 a.m.

The weather reports throughout the whole line of flight were good and the birds arrived home in good condition. This concludes the racing for the old birds for 1941. Full details of results are as follows:

The Lillie Cup and C.N.P. Championship:

1. M. Tarcon, Coleman; 2. E. Leskoek, Bellevue; 3. F. Bedington, Coleman; 4. W. Roughhead, Coleman.

ONE BILLION TONS OF COAL IN CAPE BRETON

Sydney, N.S.—Among the coal resources of Canada, those on the island of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, are among the most important, according to the Natural Resources Department of the Canadian National Railway. These coal fields have a commercially accessible reserve of one billion tons which, with deposits in other provinces, assures Canada of a plentiful supply for many years to come. With the important place that chemistry now occupies in practically every field of human endeavor, and the growing use of the internal combustion motor as a source of power, Canada's coal deposits are taking on an increasing value. Coal is the source of many important chemicals and it also can be converted into oil and gasoline.

Constable Antle Submits Police Report to Council

Two Fires in Local Garages in Recent Weeks; Laundry Cesspool Gives Offence.

Regular meeting of the council was held on Tuesday evening. Present: Mayor Antrobus, Councilors Abousaffy, Balloch, Dutilleul and Kerr.

Constable Antle submitted his report for the past six months. There had been 23 court cases and 23 convictions. Convictions had been secured for violations of the gaming house act, liquor act, creating a public nuisance, assault, and traffic laws. There had been two break-ins, one in a hotel, and the other in a grocery store. The culprits were apprehended. $300 had been collected in licenses with still more to be made. A small fire had been discovered in Sentinel Motors but was quickly extinguished. On July 2 the R.C.M.P. patrol saw a fire in Sam's Service Station and broke the front door window in order to get into the burning. A few pails of water extinguished the fire. A letter of thanks was authorized sent to the sergeant and his staff at Blairmore for their vigilance. The Sam Lee Laundry is in very poor condition. The condition is overcrowding into the adjoining creek and giving offence. Sam Lee will be given a ticket which compels him to get the cesspool into a sanitary condition. Failure to do so means a court summons. Constable Antle also reported on the unsightliness of the creek. Old cans and other refuse is dumped in the creek bed. Notices will be placed at various points along the creek warning persons to stop throwing in refuse. Offenders will be prosecuted.

Constable Antle was granted two weeks vacation starting July 10. Miss Lees and John Nikituk were authorized to take their vacations whenever convenient.

Mrs. K. Kilgannon asked council to improve the drainage system in front of her residence. Works and Property will make an inspection.

The water analysis as reported in The Journal last week was read. Six containers will be asked from the provincial health authorities so that samples can be taken from various points in the creek and river to determine at which point the water is contaminated.

Councillors Ford and Abousaffy submitted their report on the recently concluded provincial municipal convention held at Calgary.

AIR MARSHAL THANKS WORKERS

Air Marshal Patterson recently visited a newly-completed R.A.F. training station in the Midlands to meet and thank the workers who erected the building in record time. The Air Marshal is seen here enjoying a chat with one of the bricklayers.

On Sunday evening five cows were seen wandering along Blairmore road and a St. Bernard cat had almost come to a dead stop. Signs should be taken by the authorities to see that the road is kept free of this menace.

Coleman Branch of Canadian Legion in Favor of Conscription

Vote on Motion Regarding Conscription Was Unanimous; Motion Will Be Sent to Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

A number of citizens gathered at the town hall at 1 p.m. Friday to hear Fred Antrobus read the proclamation received from Lieut. K. H. Montgomery of the 93rd Battery, R.C.A., Macleod, calling the youth of the Dominion to enlist in Canada's armed forces.

Following the reading of the proclamation a written motion was given Mayor Antrobus by the local branch of the Canadian Legion. Mayor Antrobus read the motion aloud and a vote was taken to determine the number in favor of conscription and also if it was agreed to send the motion to Prime Minister Mackenzie King. The vote was unanimously in favor.

The motion: "We, the Canadian Legion, of the town of Coleman in the province of Alberta, as loyal citizens of the British Empire, and thinking only of the welfare of the Empire at this time make a motion at this gathering that a letter be sent to Prime Minister Mackenzie King informing him that this gathering of loyal citizens insists that the time for sidestepping the issue is past. If we are to survive as a nation it is time that Canada begin to wage total war against our enemy Hitler. This gathering is further convinced that to do this conscription must be brought in without delay."

The motion was proposed by Wm. Martland, president of the local branch of the Canadian Legion, and seconded by Ernest Hill, private citizen, in the presence of Mayor Antrobus.

Frank Children to Finance Skating Rink

Sponsor Dances to Raise Funds; Mayor Ed. Donkin Gives Them Three Vacant Lots.

Striking an independent note the children of Frank no longer want to be dependent on other Pass towns for skating enjoyment. Recently thirty of them banded together and with the aid of Mrs. O. Painter decided to build an open-air rink of their own.

On July 1 they sponsored a dance which was given magnificently, the hall being packed and over $100 being taken in at the door. Mayor Ed. Donkin has granted permission for the children to build their ice sheet on three vacant lots. The water will be secured from the town's water main. The question of light will be discussed shortly by the Frank council.

Work of building a fence or wall around the lots and also keeping the ice clean during the winter months will be done by the children.

Notes and Comments

LAST Thursday a proclamation was read by mayors of urban municipalities calling men to volunteer for service with the Canadian Army. In Macleod there was barely a dozen people present at the town hall to hear it read. A guard of honor consisting of Lieut. K. H. Montgomery, a sergeant-major and two corporals gave the required military touch. At Coleman, representatives of The Canadian Legion attended the ceremony, and after the Proclamation was read by Mayor Antrobus they presented a petition to Premier King asking that conscription be put into force. It is published elsewhere in this issue.

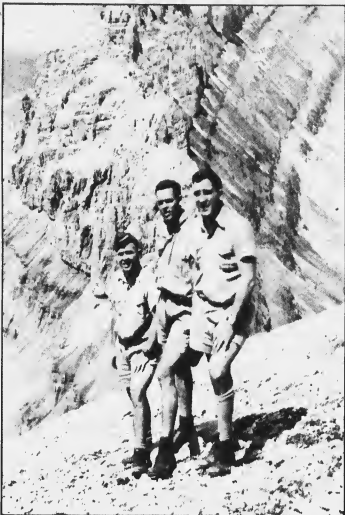

NEWS REPORTS of Premier King's visit to Alberta indicated by the demonstrations that a very large section of public opinion favors conscription. The premier's pronouncements on recruiting were those of one trying to avoid the issue for fear of alienating political support. He is going very cautiously, and probably is waiting till public opinion raises such a demand for conscription that he will be compelled to act. It will be remembered that in 1917 there was an appeal to the country in what was called the "Khaki Election," and the government was returned with an emphatic mandate to carry on.

IT'S no use ignoring the fact that the recent recruiting campaign did not obtain more than 50% of the number of men anticipated. Hitler stated in "Mein Kampf" that a country that is not able to fight for and maintain its independence does not deserve to be independent. The truth of his statement is seen in his conquest of European countries. From coast to coast there is a demand that Canada recognize that it has to make an "all out" effort to help Britain win. It is not a political issue which is being raised. It is an issue which concerns us all, and action must be taken if we are to pull our weight.

ARE people on a spending spree? The increased industrial activity resulting from the war has made money circulate more freely. Coal production in the Crows Nest Pass mines is at a higher peak than it has been for many years. Freight movement over the railroad not only of coal and lumber but of many other commodities shows a very substantial increase compared with normal times. But the wage-earner is no better off, neither are the owners of business concerns, for increased taxes take the increases in wages or profits that accrue from war's activities. In the coal mining areas the cost of living commission decided that an increase of 18c per day was to apply on miners' wages. The national defence tax is boosted from 2 per cent to 5 per cent. If a miner or any other wage earner gets an average of $30 a week, he now pays in addition to income tax, if taxable, $78 in national defence tax. The cost of living bonus of 18c per working day meets little more than half of the national defence tax he has to pay. The more abundant circulation of money gives an impression of general prosperity. Yet it takes but little analysis to discover that we are just at the same old level when it comes to net earnings. It therefore behooves us to keep the safety valve on our expenses, and check over our budgets very carefully before making any heavy expenditures involving lengthy contracts for time payments. No matter if we are tempted to spend a little more freely, we should remember that the balloon of mild inflation we are experiencing must come down.

NEWS and radio reports of the Nazi-Soviet conflict are bewildering. Each side makes extravagant claims of inflicting heavy losses. People can judge only from their own view of how the battle wages. One thing is certain; now is the opportune time for Great Britain to hammer away at German occupied France and German industrial centres to weaken the morale of the German people. The United States action in sending its naval forces to Iceland will undoubtedly provoke retaliation by the Axis powers, yet conflict between them was bound to come at some time. Britain will undoubtedly redouble her efforts if that is possible to take advantage of the Germans problems in fighting Russia, and the Dominions of the British Commonwealth will be spurred on to put forth their utmost effort in production of munitions and war material. It has to be a fight to the finish, and the words of British statesmen that there will be no peace negotiations with Hitler or his gangsters will meet with general approval by the people who have suffered so much since the war started well on to two years ago. They'll keep right on to the end of the road. That end is—Victory!

THEY'RE COMING DOWN THE MOUNTAIN

Three of the Australian airmen, who are the first on record from Australia to climb the 9200 feet of Crows Nest Mountain, are shown here on their way down after the arduous ascent, in which they were piloted by J. W. Colwell, of Macleod, who made his fourth ascent. It took five hours to make the climb to the topmost point, where they painted their names and erected a flagpole which they carried up. The names of the party, besides Mr. Colwell, who took the photograph, are from left to right, Allan Brooker, Barrie Kynvet and Ray Homby, of No. 7, Service Flying Training School, Macleod.

DID you ever climb a mountain? It's an unique experience to the novice. That dome shaped mountain which has been aptly named "The Sentinel of The Pass," Crows Nest Mountain, always seems to be standing forth as a challenge to those who travel the highway or who live in the district to ascend to its topmost summit, 9200 feet above sea level. There is plenty of tradition attaching to it. In a book published years ago with the title "Place Names of Alberta," it is stated that the origin of the name was that it was a nesting place for crows. As it is such a bare place above timber line, one cannot picture crows ever nesting there. Another tradition with a more romantic flavor is that an Indian of the Crowfoot tribe was pursued by members of another tribe because he had taken one of their maidens as his bride, and it was in the thickets surrounding the base of Crows Nest Mountain that he secluded himself with his attractive Indian bride till danger was over.

IT is mentioned in the records of the Palliser expedition which surveyed a large portion of southern Alberta for the British government about eighty years ago. At that time it was named by the Indians as Crows Nest Mountain, so the records of Captain Palliser reveal. So it has remained such and likely always will. It is the ambition of every normal young person, and often older people, too, to climb this mountain. It can be ascended from the northwest side without the aid of ropes, though it is a tiring climb of from three to five hours even if you are in good physical condition. And as you stand at the summit, the grandeur of mountains rearing their peaks into the sky in every direction and the sweep of plain to the westward is a sight never to be forgotten.

THE FIRST Australians on record to make the ascent are three young men from No. 7, S.F.T.S., who on Sunday were piloted by Jack Colwell, as he was making his fourth climb. They camped overnight at Crows Nest Lake, making an early start on Sunday morning, driving as far as possible to the base of the mountain. It took five hours to make the ascent and three hours to descend, and it was a tired trio of airmen who returned to Macleod late Sunday night. But it was well worth it, they claimed, even if Monday did remind them of their exertions in stiff joints and aching muscles.

SAYINGS OF THE WEEK

(From Financial Post)
"To lend money is not sufficient; we are equally obliged to furnish men."—Cardinal Villeneuve at Quebec.

"The greatest enemy on this side of the Atlantic is the fact that there is lots of time."—Hon. J. L. Rains, on Minister of National Defence.

"Today the whole world is divided between human slavery and human freedom—between pagan brutality and the Christian ideal. We choose human freedom—which is the Christian ideal."—President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"This is the time for employers to assist their employees in organizing. It is suggested that labor organizations should be made up only of employees who are dissatisfied with their job."—D. G. Ross, M.P. for St. Pauls, Toronto.

"We have converted the greatest peacetime industrial machine man has ever seen into the greatest producer of military material of every kind. We have subordinated all else in our life to the supremely important requirements of national defense and of aid to the British Empire."—U.S. Secretary of Navy, Frank Knox, in a recent speech at Montreal.

GET UP AN HOUR EARLIER, SAYS PREMIER

Premier Aberhart believes that the city of Edmonton has power to establish "daylight saving time," according to details of a communication to Mayor Fry. It will be recalled that recently city council favored introduction of the system. The premier, however, while appreciating efforts of the scheme's sponsors to obtain uniformity by having the whole province adopt it, said "I do not know whether this can be accomplished or not. Why would it not be as well not to bother with the clock at all and make the time of starting work in the morning one hour earlier?" he asked. Support for this idea has been expressed, since it would obviate any confusion in regard to time compilation of radio programs and transportation service times, and would still serve the purpose of daylight saving sponsors—give the military men an hour more daylight for training reserve units in the evenings.

A British guest child was named winner of an essay contest held in conjunction with the Banff School of Fine Arts, a project of the University Extension. Taking as her theme "How does the High School Dramatic Club help a Better Citizen," Miss Molly Taylor won first award. The winner of this and other contests is entitled to a free course in dramatics at the school.

SAVING THEIR OVERTIME PAY

(From Financial Post)

Many workers are enjoying full time and overtime pay out of war work. But it is a temporary respite from the fair garden when showing the man where to dig.

War savings, through Certificates and Victory Bonds, provide an opportunity for workers to put aside some of this money for a day when the transition from war to peace may shrink their pay envelopes. But everybody knows that very few workers are saving more than a fraction of their income increases. Most of the money is being spent, some of it wisely, some not too wisely.

Employees of the Dominion Foundries and Steel, Hamilton, have a good plan to prevent the frittering away of overtime pay. The company has always avoided overtime, so far as possible, believing that the 8-hour day entitles the company to get the best production out of its workers, and the workers to get the most out of life. But in some departments overtime work has been necessary to keep up with the demand for steel for war purposes.

The company suggested to its employees that special savings account be set for all overtime payments. Practically all those on overtime have agreed.

Paternalism? No exactly. It is co-operation between the employer and the worker to protect the worker and his family against the temptation to spend money that will be more useful to him, and more useful to the country, if it is saved.

No employer can force a plan like this on his employees. But most employers could sell the plan to their employees. It should be much more widely adopted.

Arthur Milley suffered an injury while at work on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ann Lopichuk was admitted to the hospital on Tuesday.

Collections made at the bank on Saturday in aid of the Soldiers' Cigarette fund totalled $83.83.

Coleman town band was one of the many bands featured in Calgary Stampede parade. 36 members under Bandmaster Fred Bunting made the trip.

Miss Beverley Short, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Short, has been appointed as a clerk at the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Mr. Jack Rhodes, of Calgary, is the new ledger keeper. Mr. Bob Stone, former ledger keeper, will now relieve at various branches during the summer months.

THE WATCH ON THE SKY

At strategic points all over the British countryside are posts of the Observer Corps. This picture shows an Observer post "somewhere in Britain."

REPORT OF 1940-41 TERM
FIRST COLEMAN GIRL
GUIDE COMPANY

In the Fall of 1940 it was decided that the Guides of the Second Coleman Company would hold their meetings with the Girls of the First Company, as one unit. 27 Guides enrolled in September. We now have thirty-one active members.

During the term we have attended, as a Guide Company, two church parades, and the Remembrance Service in November.

Work on the three sections of our program—Tenderfoot, Second Class, and First Class—has all been undertaken, together with some special items. In November Mrs. W. L. Burrows was kind enough to give the girls some instruction on marching. In April J. M. Allan, Jr., consented to teach the Morse class to use the buzzer. This class will be resumed in the Fall, when it is hoped, some of the Guides will be able to take their signaller badge.

The party at Christmas time closed our Fall term.

In January we held a most successful candy sale.

In an endeavor to help with the War work several of the Guides have been knitting individually, and, as a Company we have the following to report:

Two parcels sent to England, one consisting of under-clothing for children from two to six years; one of 42 articles for babies. Donation to the Red Cross. Donation directly to the Government.

With regard to this last we might say that it was our wish to buy Savings Certificates, but under the rules for distribution of these it was impossible for us to do so. The money was then sent to the Government as a gift from the Company.

On Thursday, June 19, our annual badge presentation was held, when the following badges were presented:

1. Louise Aboussafy — Choral Singer, Needlewoman, Health, Entertainer, Astronomer, Cyclist.
2. Shirley Holbert — Choral Singer, Health, Entertainer, Cyclist.
3. Ida Castellano — 2nd Class, Choral Singer, Cyclist.
4. Frances Dibble — Choral Singer, Health, Cyclist.
5. Pauline Korchuska — Needlewoman, Health, Skater.
6. Margaret Vincent—2nd Class, Cyclist.
7. Patricia Emmerson—Needlewoman, Homemaker.
8. Mary Castellano—2nd Class, Choral Singer.
9. Thelma Williams — Needlewoman, Homemaker.
10. Joyce Williams — Needlewoman.

The following qualified for badges, which will be awarded when they have passed the Second Class test. No proficiency badge may be worn by a girl not holding her Second Class standing:

Cyclist Badge—Isabelle Ewing, Edna Lieir, Joanna Handzel, Lenore Dafeo, Joyce McMullen, Choral Singer—Edna Lieir.

Second Class badges were applied for and received for Miss J. Emmerson, acting lieutenant of the First Company, and Mrs. F. Emery, acting Tawney for the Second Brownie Pack. Warrants for these two Guides will not be applied for.

Mrs. A. B. Westworth, past lieutenant of the Guides, kindly enrolled the three recruits. After the presentation songs were sung and a few games played, after which the girls served lunch to their guests.

This presentation closes the Guide meetings until the Fall term, which begins September 8.

Rev. A. E. Larke, former Coleman minister who is now an army chaplain, is stationed at Niagara and recently met Jim Anderson, who is also stationed there.

Mrs. J. Emmerson and family, Mrs. S. Milley and Wireless Operator Vernon Hardy, of the R.C.A.F., left on Sunday for Calgary to attend the Stampede.

THEATRE NOTES

Claudette Colbert and Ray Milland play the starring roles of "Arise, My Love" which appears at the Palace at the week-end. Claudette is a foreign correspondent in war torn Europe, while Milland plays the role of a 1940 war ace. It is the heart lifting drama of two Americans who find love and courage, and a new faith in their native land as Europe flames in war.

Starring next Wednesday at the Palace Nelson Eddy in "Let Freedom Ring" will be shown. He heads a cast comprising Virginia Bruce, Edward Arnold, Victor McLaglen, Lionel Barrymore, and others. It is a story of early life on America's frontier. The story of lawlessness and Nelson's vengeance as he fights back against the lawless, colorful era. The picture all have been waiting for, "Love Thy Neighbor," comes to Cole's theatre on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. Jack Benny and Fred Allen vie with each other for top honors in gags and for the fair Mary Martin, of "My Heart Belongs to Daddy" fame. Full of gags and songs it gives a full evening's entertainment.

Small arms ammunition factories are producing tens of millions of rounds monthly.
